About this initiative

Summary

In the Commission's 2024-2029 political guidelines, President von der Leyen announced a revision of the public procurement directives. This revision will:

- enable preference to be given to European products in public procurement, helping to ensure EU added value and secure the supply of vital technologies, products and services
- also modernise and simplify procurement rules, while making public procurement a tool for strategic investment.

Spanish National Commission on Markets and Competition (Spain)

\(/info/law/better-regulation/have-your-say/initiatives/15492-EU-public-procurement-rules-revision/F33372615_en\)

The feedback from the Directorate for Competition and the Advocacy Department of Spanish National Commission on Markets and Competition (CNMC) to the review of the EU Public Procurement Directives is based on a clear diagnosis: competition in EU public procurement has declined in recent years. This is reflected in the increase in single-bid procedures, low SME participation, greater reliance on non-competitive procedures and limited cross-border ...

Back Market (France) \(/info/law/better-regulation/have-your-say/initiatives/15492-EU-public-procurement-rules-revision/F33368608_en\)

Back Market is a French unicorn scale-up and the leading online marketplace for refurbished electronics, operating across 13 EU countries. With over 3 billion in revenue in 2025, it has become a circular economy leader aligned with Europe's environmental and competitiveness goals. The European refurbishment sector is strategically important for the EU: it creates local jobs, reduces carbon emissions, and supports green re-industrialization by res...

ClientEarth calls on the Commission to seize the opportunity presented by the revision of the Public Procurement Directives to reinforce strategic public procurement as a means of better aligning and bridging the EUs competitiveness and sustainability objectives. To achieve this, ClientEarth has the following suggestions for a revision of the Public Procurement Directives. 1. Ensure a coherent legal architecture by preserving the distinction betw...
